It's easy!

There's no such thing as a free lunch...

But there is www.easyfundraising.org.uk

Visit and have a look - there's much more information than we can fit on this sheet!

But here it is in a nutshell...

A lot of on-line shops are prepared to pay commission in return for traffic.

It's there to be had. Let's have it!

Visit your favourite on-line shops via the easyfundraising website and your purchases generate commission. easyfundraising collects it, and Bedhampton Parish can share it. Free.

What's happened so far

Bedhampton Parish has registered with them. It didn't cost us anything. We're "a cause".

What we're asking you to do

We'd like you to register too. It won't cost you anything either. You're a shopper. When you register, pick "Bedhampton Parish" as your cause...

And then...

Next time you go on-line shopping, go to your normal store via easyfundraising

Nothing else changes.

It's easy!

Visit www.easyfundraising.org.uk...

What does it cost me?

Nothing - your shop pays commission to easyfundraising because you came via their site.

So I'm buying via easyfundraising?

No, you buy from the same shop you always bought from. Think of easyfundraising as a sort of Google. Use it to find your shop and our Parish can benefit.

How do I shop at Amazon for example?

Go to easyfundraising.org.uk and pick Amazon from the A-Z of shops.

What's the catch?

There isn't one - it takes one step and then everything else is the same.

I bet there aren't many retailers

Over 600!

I bet it only raises a couple of pence

It varies but WH Smith, for example, pays 3.5% commission. Your price stays the same, you pay in the same way. And easyfundraising splits the commission with our Parish.

I'm committing myself, aren't I?

No - check out the questions and answers on the easyfundraising website.

What about my credit card details easyfundraising doesn't get to see these

Can I cancel?

Yes - just stop visiting easyfundraising!
